

welcomes PRUE URLWIN

to speak at our next Members Forum about

LEARNING DIFFERENTLY

Gifted and twice-exceptional learners

Prue is a registered Educational Psychologist experienced in the assessment of gifted children and who works with Indigo Assessment and Counselling in Auckland.

AUGUST 10th 2011 (Wednesday)

7.30pm

Alexander McMillan Room

Upstairs in Community House
Moray Place Dunedin

Members: FREE entry Non-members: $5 entry per person/family

OAGC Membership
available on the door:
$25 per annum

Please arrive promptly as there will be limited access after 7.30pm

Prue is a passionate and skilled advocate for individuals and their families who have behaviours that can be associated with dyslexia, attention difficulties, dyspraxia, mood problems and anxiety. She is visiting Dunedin to run assessments for local families.

For more information about OAGC contact:

Sarah Hjertquist

03 456 3522

sarahindunedin@gmail.com