

The Otago Association for the Gifted and Talented invites parents of gifted children to a discussion forum with Dr Ross Notman

Director of the Centre for Educational Leadership & Administration

Teaching gifted and talented students: an interactive dialogue with parents.

- Ross is keen to exchange ideas with parents on how to support gifted and talented children at home and in the classroom

WHEN: Wednesday 3rd November 2010

TIME: 7.30pm

WHERE: Alexander McMillan Room

Upstairs in the Dunedin Community House, 301 Moray Place

COST: OAGAT Members FREE. Non-members: gold coin

Dr Ross Notman is the foundation Director of the Centre for Educational Leadership and Administration at the University of Otago. He has been involved in New Zealand education for 35 years as a teacher, deputy principal, school management advisor, teacher educator and educational leadership researcher. Ross has worked extensively in leadership coaching and in principal support networks. His publications include commentary on professional issues in educational leadership journals; he also presents at international conferences.

Currently, Ross is the New Zealand director of an international successful school principalship project that includes 14 other countries. He is also the recipient of a Fulbright Scholarship to study innovative leadership programmes for rural principals.

The Otago Association for the Gifted and Talented

For more information about OAGAT please contact the Secretary:
Sarah Hjertquist
phone: (03) 456 3522
email: sarahindunedin@gmail.com